

But most, I love the Christmas story—
The Savior's birth
in love and glory.

The world first saw
this royal stranger

Cradled in a lowly manger.

Angels guarded,
Jesus slept,

While tears of joy
the shepherds
wept.

And guided by a brilliant star

Three royal kings
came from afar,

To bring Him gifts
both rare and old

Of frankincense and myrrh and gold.

